COILs & Collaborating with the Libraries

Jennifer Newman
Hunter College Libraries

How can a librarian support a COIL?

- Research support for students
  - Research guides (example)
  - In class workshops
  - Small group consultations

- Collaboration on assignment design

- Suggestions for tools and platforms

Tools for Collaboration & Publication

Zotero citation manager

- Collaborate on a public or private "group library" (shared bibliography)

For more information:

- https://library.hunter.cuny.edu/citation-tools

- https://www.zotero.org/groups/

CUNY Academic Commons

- Can be used as a (public or private) group or course site

- Students can collaborate by
  - Sharing materials
  - Sharing & discussing works in progress
  - Sharing & discussing finished projects
  - Building a website together

For more information:

- https://commons.gc.cuny.edu/

Manifold

Use the Manifold platform to…

- create an OER course text

- collaboratively annotate texts

- publish student work as an e-book

For more information:

- https://gcdi.commons.gc.cuny.edu/manifold/

- https://cuny.manifoldapp.org/